David Campos Appointed to the CA Commission on Aging

SACRAMENTO --- Anthony Rendon, the former Speaker of the California State Assembly, as one of his final acts before his term with the Assembly expired on June 30, appointed David Campos to the California Commission on Aging (CCoA) on June 28, 2023.

The new Commissioner, Attorney David Campos, works for the County of Santa Clara where, among other things, he oversees the county's legislative affairs. Campos has served as Vice-Chair of the California Democratic Party since his election in 2021. He brings to the Commission experience in addressing homelessness and housing, one of CCoA's policy priorities, and a background in advocating for equity, social justice, and expanded access to healthcare.

Commissioner Campos has more than two decades of public service, having previously held office as a San Francisco Board of Supervisors member, a San Francisco Police Commissioner, a General Counsel of San Francisco's public schools, and a Deputy City Attorney. He holds a law degree from Harvard Law.

The California Commission on Aging serves as the principal advocacy body for older Californians seeking to be a catalyst for change that addresses emerging challenges and opportunities and celebrates Californians as they age. The California Commission on Aging advises the Governor and Legislature, along with state, federal, and local agencies on programs and services that affect older adults. The Commission's work on behalf of older adults reflects the values of equity and inclusion; autonomy, choice, and access; respect and integrity; collaboration and partnership.

Meetings of the California Commission on Aging are open to the public. Visit the ccoa.ca.gov for information on current and past CCoA meetings.
